FEI Benefits

Knowledge Sharing & Networking Community

FEI members share the latest business approaches and best practices with KC area peers, informally and through roundtables. Great way to stay connected with other financial professionals in Kansas City.

Professional Development

FEI KC provides monthly programs and an up to 14 hours Professional Development Day in November (up to $2800 estimated value). FEI National provides professional development and opportunities to earn Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits through live, in-person conferences, speaker series events and webcasts. Topics range from general finance to specific industry issues and cover emerging trends, regulatory and standards developments, leadership skills and job search skills.

Advocacy

FEI has earned a reputation as a widely influential voice on behalf of financial executives before the U.S. Congress, SEC, FASB, PCAOB and IASB on issues related to corporate financial accounting and reporting and business policy.

Financial Executive Magazine

FEI's award-winning flagship publication covers financial, business and management news, trends and strategies to help senior executives work better, faster and smarter.

Financial Executives Research Foundation (FERF)

As the research affiliate of FEI since 1944, FERF is dedicated to identifying, developing and providing practical content through objective research. FERF publishes more than 40 original, member-driven research and journalism pieces each year—all free to U.S. FEI members.

Career Center

FEI provides a broad range of career services as a benefit to members. Visit the Job Center, Resume Bank, and Directors Registry - all accessible online - to find or fill a position.
